Without recognizing an existing tradition,
Spring Woods has a very definite one —
The tradition of winning.
It seems that wherever the school is represented
Not only do our participants win, but They win more than any other school.
This is evident in the many "sweepstakes"
Swept in both music and forensic contests.
Contenders in athletic events receive
Much publicity for their outstanding abilities.
Representatives in many diverse areas
May be individuals, but they're always
"from Spring Woods Senior High, Houston, Texas."
The ability to win comes from confidence,
And the confidence comes from knowing
That you can win and that others before you
Have proven this time after time.
In a world of changing values,
Traditions seem to be losing their place.
But pride will never be lost and it is this Quality that makes Spring Woods what it is —
A school of winners.

Communication is vital to every life, and Expression is the mode of communication.
The Speech and Music Departments
Encompassed many talented individuals
Who expressed themselves verbally,
Dramatically, vocally, and instrumentally.
In each case, some were better than others
And these numerous exceptions won many honors.
Thespians joined with NFL to win "Sweepstakes"
At both the Lamar and Bryan Adams tournaments.
In addition, drama students worked many hours
On three full-scale productions, including
Their U.I.L. One-Act Play, The Fantasticks.
Musically, the large organizations of the Marching Band, Chorale, and Orchestra
Represented Spring Woods well at U.I.L. contests.
Two band students made the All-State Band
And two Chorale members, Mary Laughlin and Irene Guenther reached All-State Choir.
Houston Symphony Concerto Contest winner
Edward Lawrence's ability was recognized
When he studied in summer residence with Dr. Behre.
These students used expression to compete
And used ability to win.

Energy enthusiasm and Devotion characterized the Sports teams of Spring Woods
 With a solid reputation
 Behind them both the Football and basketball teams
 Ranked high in the state
 The basketball team's effort in Win Win and Rudy Parrott
 Made a big difference
 In the loggers' season
 Rick Kranzke made a difference
 State contender in many years
 The girls volleyball team
 Again had an impressive season
 Track and basketball teams
 In the year but this year
 Dampen their performance
 Daryl Graka and the football team
 Journeyed far and near Win wherever
 These teams and the loggers
 Were a big asset to the Winona Tiger spirit

our thousand individuals comprised Spring Woods Senior High School.
Their efforts combined or alone or
Their apathy and abstinence determined
The temperament of the school
Some did not care for the crowds and activities
And looked outside of the school for fulfillment
But most committed themselves to the Organization or team of their choosing
Then it was practice every day after school
Or Tuesday night meetings or weekend games
The results were excellent in every field
And Spring Woods reputation as a winner was fortified

Students life

BRENDA SCHUSTER
RONNIE WILLIAMS

No school is just classes and books
A school full of students
And students full of life
Generate constant activities
The liberalized student body still Preferred traditional pastimes, so this year's Activities were much the same as previous years
Fall felt the excitement of beginning again
Mixed with the enthusiasm of football season
The bonfire brightened homecoming festivities
Which ended when Linda Ingram was crowned queen
The holidays were made colorful
With carnations and valentines
A major undertaking of the year
Hello, Dolly! sold out for two February week ends
Plus a command performance
The pace quickened as spring approached
Activities overlapped but many students
Took time out to get out in the open
And get an early start on the summer ahead
Annual events included the Tigerette Talent Show
And the Sr. Girls sponsored the Twirp Dance Hard campaigning occupied both cheerleading and Student Council candidates' time, while
All the "winners" who kept Spring Woods' tradition
Going were recognized on Honors Night
The Junior and Senior Proms climaxed the Social activities and before it seemed time
Finals graduation and another year were over

Fresh Start

Orientation was a crash course in high school routine.
The program attempted to familiarize

Many had hoped for.

The Safari Staff began their year
At a week-long journalism workshop
At A&M in July
The staff received four first and
One third place awards in yearbook
Competition, a new record.
Yearbook sales were down this year
Due partially to a lack of Senior homerooms.
Sales were reopened a week before
Christmas to make up this loss.
The staff was allowed one period
Each day to capture an entire Year on paper.
Both the mechanical and creative
Resources of the staff were tapped
Time after time as after school work
Sessions lengthened and lengthened.
Each of the three deadlines was Met with much cajolery and many Frenzied nerves
Finally, May brought the completion
Of the 1972 Safari and a well earned
Sense of accomplishment.

Gralka Disqualified From State Competition

Continuing her dominance in Texas
Daryl Gralka, three-time state tennis champion
Began her drive for a fourth consecutive UIL title with wins at New Braunfels, Beaumont, and Pasadena.
Asked to accompany the nation's Top-ranked teen players to Australia,
Daryl made the trip abroad, but
At the cost of forfeiting her chance
To play in state competition.
Due to a little known rule
A Texas tennis player may not play
Out-of-state without a school sponsor present.
Under this rule Daryl was disqualified
Along with other top players in the state.
Ranked seventh in the nation among Girls 18 years and under,
Daryl played superbly and Gained recognition and respect
For the game of tennis in Texas.

Daryl Gralka easily returns a smashing serve.

Concentrating on her forearm movements, Daryl demonstrates a correct swing.

Bending for a return, Daryl practices her high lobs.

Though they did not get any top honors
The Tigers' scores were all around 80
For a very respectable finish
At the Lamar Consolidated and
The Galveston tournaments
The Tigers had similar results.
Playing most of their matches
At Bear Creek golf course
Spring Woods played best there
Sophomore Steve Brack had the lowest
Score of the season with a 71
At Bear Creek in a practice tournament.

TRICIA TEELE
ANDY LAM

The whole is a composite of individuals
It is the singular and their identities
That determine the mass
Each student affected this school
Just by being and being here
The personality of the school
Was composed of 4 000 unique personalities
All blended together in accord or discord
Depending on the temperament of the individual
Everyone was involved
Wanting to be or not
But it was the more outstanding students
Who held the greater influence
Among the elected and selected leaders
Was freshman Shirley Morrow
Crowned Miss Teen Age Houston 1972
Karla Kuusisto, senior, was one of only 850 national high school students who received
The National Council of English Teachers Award
Individuals, organizations, and teams
Represented Spring Woods in virtually Every area of contention and did so well
Each contributed what he could
And took what he needed
Classes, activities, and friends
Filled the voids in students' lives
And they in return filled
The voids in the Life of the school

Classroom Shadows

We live our lives
 In search of a lost chord
 Maybe a lost chord
 To play just "one more time
 A chord in a forgotten song
 Of pressures, time, work, and play
 Of tears, both joy and sorrowful sadness
 Of lunchtime songs, laughs, and smokes
 We live our lives
 In search of a flying banner
 One we can fly for ourselves
 To make a mirror of our hopes
 Our dreams, our realities
 Siphoned out of a ternate school years
 When the sand and warm of sun
 Were the classrooms
 Twelve long years is a long search
 For a chord, a banner
 A banner, a banner
 The many songs we've sung
 On crowded, sweaty wooden seats
 And cheering, swaying, waving voices
 Victory! Defeat
 We'll find what we need
 When we look and we see
 A shadow of dedications
 Giving indications
 Of past feelings and the future road to be Remember when
 Oh yeah; and the time when Mrs
 Too fresh now
 Too stale now
 And all so far away
 Play it just "one more time
 Please?

faculty

The most necessary element in a good education
Is an outstanding teacher
Spring Woods has many
Their job was to teach every student
In each of his subjects
Their dedication to this purpose was Through failures and apathy
And their dedication to the students
Saw them counseling the failures
Trying to undo the harm
And trying extra hard to Transform the apathy to excitement
As with any generalization
There were exceptions
These were the few who
Felt their job was to control
A classroom for six hours
And then leave
But many stayed after
To sponsor clubs and Help classes with projects
And chaperone fun
These were the few who
Were student teachers
To their sides as friends
Suffering much criticism
The administration, staff and faculty
Worked hard to overcome their weaknesses
The result was a winning faculty

The Decision-Makers

The School Board was comprised
Of seven community leaders
Monday night meetings were held
Handling problems of importance
To the whole community
Funds were raised for the school
And new construction was approved
For the ever-increasing enrolment
The Board set high standards
And on the question of Policies they designated
Each principal responsible
For enforcement
The public's approval of the School Board was demonstrated
In November when the voters
Re-elected all incumbents
To their respective positions

LORIE ANS
ERENDA BILLS

Any institution as large as a university is Very important to the community
And the community is important to the university Business determines the university
Realizing this two-way relationship
Stores and students support each other
In return for students' participation in University activities and programs
Stores aid them in the form of Contributions, discounts, and free materials Teens' buying power statistically large but seemingly small compared to the neighborhood Online shopping page has been purchased by businessmen to help in advertising their business and to make it look
As professional as possible
Three indexes follow the ads
In a school as large as Spring Woods, it is often hard
That faces are lost in the crowd
The Students and Faculty Index helps by Singling out one face from the rest on our crowded pages
With space limited, it is impossible to picture
Every member of every organization
Credit for everyone's participation is noted
In the Organizations Index
And with four years of Activities and programs completed
The graduates have summarized their high school years in the Senior Credits
